My Dear Admiral:

As a Vermonter--all of whom are reputed to vote Republican even if the candidate is a fence post--I must break down and commend President Carter on his excellent choice for a head of the CIA. My congratulations to him for his choice and certainly to you for being an outstanding candidate for the job.

The newspapers seem to be making little of the fact that you and the President were classmates at Annapolis, but I must admit that I take every opportunity to make much of the fact that we were classmates at Wilton Park last December. That certainly was a most pleasant experience.

Again, my congratulations to you and very best wishes and success in a job that will certainly be a challenge.

Personal regards,

Edward P. Lyman
Vice President, Development
